These representatives are elected for two-year terms. An individual may not serve more than two consecutive terms in the same position at the Board of Directors.

2. Board members are expected to attend Annual Chapter Conferences and to participate in Business and Board Meetings.

C. Ad Hoc Committees

1. The President may appoint Ad Hoc Committees on issues of relevance to the Chapter.

III. Annual Conferences

- A. The South Central Chapter will hold an Annual Conference each spring (typically in February or March). The conference will be hosted by an institution or organization, with a member of that institution's faculty or staff acting as Local Arrangements Chair. Usually, the Local Arrangements Chair is also the Program Chair.
- B. The host institution and its Program Chair will be determined by the Board of Directors. The date of the conference shall be determined by the Program Chair, in consultation with the host institution, following the guideline that the conference should fall between the end of February and late March. The Program Chair will enlist the assistance of colleagues and fellow Board members to assist with program planning. The Hand- book for Chapter Conference Planners provides recommendations for event preparation.
- C. Site selection should take into account the following factors:
 1. Geographic location: usually, the meetings rotate throughout the region in the following order: Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma.
 2. Ease of travel to, and lodging in, the host city.
 3. Facilities and technological support for the meeting at the host institution.
 4. The ability to record concerts.
- D. Annual conferences typically include the following events:
 1. Paper presentations.
 2. Lecture-recitals.
 3. Concerts featuring CMS composers and performers.
 4. A keynote address.
 5. A panel discussion on the national CMS common topic.
 6. At least one poster session.
- E. A Call for Proposals is developed by the Program Chair, with input from the program committees and the chapter president. Selection is by blind review.
- F. Student involvement at conferences includes the following provisions:
 1. There should be no set number of students participating in the conference.
 2. Student CMS members are invited to submit their posters, papers, lecture-recitals, performances, and compositions for consideration for a Student Merit Award, which carries a small cash stipend. A limited number of these awards will be presented each year, with selection by vote of the Board of Directors. Student members wishing to be considered for a Student Merit Award must adhere to additional submission requirements as outlined in the Call for Proposals.

G. Guidelines for Annual Conference registration fees are as follows:

1. The registration fee should be determined so that it covers the Chapter's costs for running the conference.
2. Students pay a reduced registration fee.
3. All conference presenters are required to register for the conference. Those who are assisting with a presentation and not attending the rest of the conference should register only if full-time faculty members. The Program Chair will set a registration deadline for presenters.

IV. Amendments

- A. Amendments to this document may be proposed by a member of the Board of Directors or by any group of five members of the Chapter.
- B. An amendment to the Bylaws must be approved by the Board of Directors, then ratified by the majority of the voting members of the Chapter.
